C. Facts: I've been having problems with my google keyboard. It keeps delaying my typing by shutting on and off. Everytime I use my phone the keyboard keep coming on and off. My phone seems like it is being tampered with by some outside force. I think a group of individuals watch me while I type and decide when my keyboard is going to shut on and off. I want a full investigation done on the people who are tampering with my keyboard. I need my keyboard to type on the internet as well as create doctors appointments through my google calendar. Everytime im ~~setting~~ setting up my doctors appointments the keyboard shuts on and off, to where I can't type. This delay last for ten minutes. I should be able to use my google keyboard and all of it functions. But it seems as people want to block me from using the google keyboard because it is my choice to use.
